

ABOUT CRPE

Founded in Bucharest in 2009, the Romanian Center for European Policies is one of the most experienced think tanks operating in the Central and Eastern Europe, a leading forum for debate for Eastern Partnership countries (especially with Republic of Moldova, Ukraine and Georgia) on EU affairs, reform of the judiciary and public policy.

The programs implemented by CRPE focus on 5 major objectives:

- Providing innovative solutions for supporting justice/ anti corruption initiatives in Romania and the region;
- Initiating projects meant to encourage debates on European and Romanian public policies;
- Initiating training courses on European issues and publishing studies, research papers and informative materials regarding EU public policies;
- Initiating advocacy campaigns for good governance at the EU level;
- Strengthening citizen participation in the EU decision-making process by initiating debates.
